Swarms of Bees.

Mr. EDITOR - We are frequently amused with newspaper scribblings and correspondence, and particularly of late, with reports from our friends and neighbors on Empire Prairie. We have been acquainted somewhat with a swarm of Bs around Whitesville for sometime— Byers, Booher, Bonnagan, Brochus, Burrus, Buis, Bashor, Bradford, Bowen, Baily, Barnett and Barrows; but now we learn of another swarm on Empire-Brown, Bulla, Bonham, Blodgett, &c., in relation to one Baison. We hope, however, that those things that have been so "agog," will now settle down in peace and tranquility. There is anoth-er swarm of Bs around Whitehall, in Nodaway county, a little north Bolckow; they are: Blackerby, Ball, Bartlett, Blakely, Barrington, Barnes, Blagg, Benson, Broderick and Baker. And a little swarm started last Sunday over near Fountainbleau-Elder Best. Baptist, preached in the Bedford Chapel, between Bedford, Batie, Brooks and Baxter. So you see, with so many bees, it is very natural to have some buzzing, blowing and bumming. So be of good cheer. BOLCKOW, BARNARD AND BRIDGWATER.

Be "Just" and Fear Not.

WHITESVILLE, Mo., June 1, 1874. Mr. EDITOR-I am just recovering from the effects of that indigestion, and just have strength enough left sufficient to just take up my pen in my own defence and to do justice to my worthy friend Mr. G. A. S. Pipe by informing him that I am just alive and just a little more. He just thought I was justly cloomed to that desolation just because he was not called to treat the case just right, and just right it was that he was not called, for he just would have had his own way, and just so certain as I devoured the contents of that "little look," just that sure would he just have applied his remedy and heaved it up, and just put it in his own pocket and then he would just have had the pleasure of clipping that other reading mat-ter contained in that "little book." Just in conclusion I will just say to Mr. Pipe that there is just a slight mistake in his item of last week. That mass meeting held in the City Hall was entirely a fizzle. The election of officers was deferred until the next regular meeting. So far as the mill changing hands, that is also a fizzle. Orris han't sold; he is just the man to fill just such a position as milling. We glory in his spunk. Those old boots were just a sell. Squire knew that you did not discover that they were new ones. Just so with all your items. You must not get excited. Just so.

A fishing party was the anticipated engagement of last week, at the Minton Ford, on Platte river, Saturday, May 30, under the supervision of Colonel McCarty. Promptly at the appointed time, your correspondent was on the ground. All he could see that was akin to a fishing party was a boy, an old woman and Colonel McCarty. The bites of the Col-onel and the boy seemed to be principally under the hat, while the time of the old woman was divided between the ten miles square musquitoes and fishing line. After several hours had been spent in this pleasant exercise, they were interrupted by the arrival of "Prof. Coon," who was to furnish music for the occasion. The crowd then assembled, and the Professor played one of his choice pieces, "Merry May," on an old dinner horn. They then dispersed, hoping they might meet again.

The report of so much wheat being killed by chintzbugs is news to all of us, as there is only one small field in the neighborhood that has been injured in the least, and that is not plowed for corn. We can say that the Cherry Grove farms will produce enough wheat this season to supply half the county in bread for one year. That is how the chintz-bug has injured us in this vicinity.

I perceive that the Hon. "Occidental," Governor, &c., has abdicated his throne and once more become a being of earth. His first act of self-exoneration was to grasp that same old quill and demolish me. I heartily admire his classification of the animal kingdom, and his therough knowledge of orthography. First he classes me under the head of carnivora and next the herbivora; in the last he makes a weak effort to call me "Ass Pipe," but utterly failed to add the other S. I must be one, however, else I should never have blowed him up when he gave me the first pecturust. He thinks he knows "the ear-marks of the gentleman. I have no doubt the inflated long-eared individual reachip recognizes the pipe that blows him up, but the ear-marks are only the shadow of his own person. He also charges me with having two assistants. This I deny, as "Pinchback" and "Popular" have long since "gone where the woodbine twineth." Operating with equal facility on the heaviest as well as the lightest fabrics, leaving a seam alike on both sides, beautifully amooth, strong and elastic.
